

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. What are the COVID guidelines for Instrumental Music?

Below are the COVID guidelines as stated by APS Arts Education Administration on August 26, 2021.

- No additional spacing required
- Students need to use bell covers on wind instruments when playing indoors.
- No bell covers required outdoors.
- APS Arts Ed has purchased bell covers for wind instruments.
- Students can wear a slit or regular mask when playing a wind instrument, they can lower a regular mask while playing.
- Percussion students need to be masked always when indoors.
- String instruments (violin, viola, cello, bass) do not need bell covers (only standard face mask for student).
- Percussion instruments do not need bell covers (only face mask for student).
- Students should wash their hands or sanitize at the start and end of class.
- No audience limitations.